Handwritten text in a medieval script, possibly Gothic or similar, on a parchment strip. The text is arranged in several lines and includes a prominent red initial 'H' in the lower right section. The script is dense and characteristic of late medieval manuscript writing.

Handwritten text in an ancient script, likely Tamil, on a piece of aged, yellowed paper. The text is arranged in approximately six horizontal lines. The script is dense and cursive, with some characters appearing to be in a different script or dialect. The paper shows signs of wear, including a large dark stain in the lower-left quadrant and a small hole on the right edge. The text is written in black ink on a background of horizontal lines.
